III. TREASURER'S REPORT (Lori Wordell)

Checking - $11,202.48

Savings - $4,739.95

Lori Wordell reported that she is vacating the treasurer's position next year. Would like to have someone by winter so that she can help them ease into the position for next year.

IV. OLD BUSINESS

- Freshman Orientation Update (Kathy)

We sold a lot of apparel. Kathy also reported that she spoke in front of the freshman parents in the NC Theatre.

- Apparel Update (Renee)

Doing well. Deposited - $2,078 (apparel sale)

$ 816 (clearance)

$1,200 (new apparel)

Going to have a table at Open House on October 4th. Need volunteers to help at the table. There is still some clearance left (small and XX – Large).

- Website (Jerry)

Need pictures from the golf scramble to post on the website.

V. NEW BUSINESS

- Post Golf Tournament Update (Dave/Jim)

Dave Hall reported that it was a great day and everyone had a good time. Did not make as much money as last year. Jim gave a comparison of what we did last year to what we did this year.

Dave Hall spoke about the Mead/Mt. Spokane golf scramble at Wandermere Golf Course. They made $28,000 this year. Their major sponsor was Wendle Ford. Dave Hall suggested to raise the sponsor fee to $100. We need to start working and getting a committee together to start on next year's golf scramble. Next year's golf scramble is scheduled for September 10th at Downriver Golf Course.

- Coaches' Clinic Update (Renee)

It is going slow. Only have 7 signed up. The Coaches' Clinic is set for October 9th. Renee said she contacted Hoopfest but no response. We will be providing lunch. Will take last minute registrations.

- Concession Stand Update (Cyndee/Kenna)

Going well. Kenna goes to URM and brings in receipt to get reimbursed. She took the cheese pump to get fixed. Doesn't know when we will get it back.

- Open House (Kathy)

Open House is next Monday night (October 4). NC Booster Club will be selling apparel.

- Winter Allocation Requests (Kathy)

Winter allocation requests will be due on October 18th.

- Coaches Corner

Dave Hall – NC beat Shadle at Football. JV won against Shadle in football. Soccer won against University (first win against U-High in 8 yrs.) Cross Country placed 3rd in Boise. Volleyball – plays Shadle, Mt. Spokane (tomorrow) and Lewis & Clark (Friday). Softball – Varsity & JV won against Shadle.

- Around North Central

- Scott Harmon introduced three girls who want to organize the "Letter Club". They explained what the concept of "Letter Club" would be. To get more kids involved in attending games. To start up the club they are asking for money for T-shirts and supplies. There would be an entry fee to be in the Club.
- Spirit Days – Homecoming against LC. Homecoming dance – Saturday.
